The young Kaiser and his wife are back home again. They arrived at Potsdam yesterday, where they were effusively greeted by their five little sons. The Empress Frederick and her two daughters are touring in Greece. The boom in Cleveland pig iron at Glasgow was a big one. Ex-King Milan scores a point, but also loses one.

THY CABLE TO THE DISPATCE. LONDON, November 16 .- [Copyright.]-Kaiser Wilhelm and his wife reached home, at Potsdam, to-day amid great enthusiasm on the part of their five little sons, who were drawn up in what the military Emperor would call parade order, at the palace door, and began to shout as soon as the royal carriage was seen in the distance. About the same time the previous morning the Kaiser had met his Austrian brother, meeting, if not so refreshingly natural, was undeniably cordial. In honor of the dis-

EFFUSIVE AS SCHOOL GIRLS.

The grown-up monarchs were as effusive in their embraces as a couple of schoolgirls. William, standing on the step of his saloon ear, began kissing his hand to Francis Joseph as soon as he caught a glimpse of him, and jumping from the train before it had stopped, flung himself into the officials of the Master Bakers' Association, Austrian monarch's arms. When the kiss-no circumstances would they yield. Their ing the order of things natural among common folks, bowed low to the German Empress and solemnly saluted the imperial

It seemed scarcely worth taking such trouble and incurring He had been a seminarist in the college of an expense of thousands of dollars, for the imperial visitors did not spend five minutes in the bower, and luncheon was served in the Kaiser's saloon.

Just an hour and a quarter from the moment of its arrival, the imperial train steamed out of Innsbruck, the Anstrian Emperor riding in it as far as Rosenheim. On the journey he had two hours' private talk with the Kaiser, to which the reporters were not admitted. It is a pity verbatim notes could not have been taken of the conversation, because everything tends to show it was of an unusually

IMPORTANT CHARACTER.

There is, in truth, good reason to believe that the young Kaiser endeavored to persyade the Austrian Emperor to join with all the great powers in giving Ferdinand notice to quit Bulgaria, or, failing in that, to induce him to forego his known intention to recognize that young man's right to reign in

It is doubtful if Francis Joseph has consented to the former proposal, which, if carried out, would soon reopen the entire Eastern question, but he could not well refuse the other suggestion, seeing that Prince Bismarck has received a pretty plain intimation that a recognition of Ferdinand's position, undeniably illegal under the provisions of the treaty of Berlin, would be followed by direct Russian action in the

If the state of European affairs permit, he will take a cruise in a new yacht, the cost of which the Reichstag Budget Committee to-day somewhat grudgingly allowed.

The Empress Frederick and her two daughters are touring in Greece. At the end of the month they will proceed to Naples, where they will stay five weeks. The Empress is suffering somewhat from the reaction of the recent gaieties and excitement, and wants a rest badly. Early in January she will meet her mother, the Queen of England, at Florence.

A PIG IRON BOOM.

carcity of the Cleveland Article in Glasgow Send Prices Up Above the Scotch-The Output Far Below the Consumption-The Market Sound.

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH. LONDON, November 16,-THE DIS-PATCH'S Glasgow correspondent telegraphs that the week has been the most exciting in the history of the pig iron market, owing to the reported scarcity of Cleveland iron. The chief dealings were in that description, the price rising 3 shillings above the Scotch, a state of things without precedent in living memory. The market was further flustered by the report that four large speculators were negotiating for the pur-chase of large blocks of iron, in order to intensify the scarcity. On Friday the rate for carrying over warrants was advanced 71/2 per cent, and many weak bulls were com-pelled to unload. The fall was checked by the receipt of large buying orders, especially from England.

Makers are so heavily booked ahead that they can spare little iron for the open mar-ket, while many merchants who bought iron when the price was comparatively low have found it more profitable to resell it in the warrant market. It is natural to expect that the recent rapid advances will be fol-lowed by equally violent declines, more esecially as consumers are refusing to follow he market. Makers are working at the highest pressure, and are coining money. Five ad-Scotland, but the annual output, a million tons, is below the consumption, and it is estimated that the reserve stocks in stores will sustain a further drain. speculation in iron, it is interesting to note that im:1870 iron stood at 56.6; in 1872, 37.6, and in 1878, 43.6. Bear operations have been very light, and some brokers known as traditional bears have made a lot of money through bull operations. At the present moment the market appears to be sound.

LABOR TROUBLES IN LONDON.

The Bakers Winning in Their Fight, but Other Strikes Are On. BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.1

LONDON, November 16 .- The agitation among the omnibus men is nearing a critical stage. The Road Car Company has expressed sympathy with the men, and tried to induce the General Omnibus Company, the largest concern of the kind in the world, to confer as to the best means of meeting in Innsbruck, and in that case also the the men's demands. The overture was curtly refused, and a general strike may occur next week. The renewed agitation among dock labortriet the Emperor Francis Joseph was ers and river and wharfmen has not yet led to anything like a general strike, and it is dressed in the uniform of his Tyrolese not likely to do so. Already there is much discontent among the men at being called out without a grave cause, and the leaders are quarreling among them-selves for precedence. The bakers' agitation has taken a most unexpected turn. Nearly all the large emthe strike, which will commence Monday will be confined to the men employed at the smaller class of shops. Under these circumstances, the struggle can't last long, and the men are bound to win if well led.

Then, providing himself with a pair of clerical spectacles, he went to me and put up at the Minerva Hotel, which is chiefly frequented by the clergy, as Monsignore le Prince de la Tour d'Au-

Nobody took the trouble to investigate his title, and he was treated with much distinction by the higher order of clericals with seriousness of his deportment were prodigous, and for two weeks he mixed, undetected, in select clerical society, and deceived ecclesiastics of the highest rank. When he was finally unmasked he committed suicide.

The Liverpool Chamber of Commerce Slips Up on the Allen Labor Law.

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH. LONDON, November 16 .- The Council of the Chamber of Commerce held an inquest to-day upon the conduct of the Collector of Customs at Norfolk, Va., and practically returned a verdict of temporary insanity. It seems that the collector decided that the employment in America of English clerks and graders by Liverpool cotton firms was contrary to the alien act. The Liverpool merchants, claiming to know quite as much of American isw as any Virginian official, contended that the act was meant to apply only to Chinese and Coolies, and indignantly want to know if there can be any doub about the color of a Lancashare man's skin. The suggestion, apparently made by the unfortunate Collector in his maddest moment, that British merchants should employ IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.1 LONDON. November 16. - A practical German has lately been earning a goodly income at the expense of the British Treasury. He has flooded England with spurious half crowns, which are equal in every way to the genuine coins. The depreciation in the value of silver enables him to make a handsome profit. The coins are stamped from excellent dies. They are of the exact weight of the genuine article, although they are a fraction larger in diameter, but thinner in substance. The experts of the goldsmiths company have even pronounced these imita-tions genuine, so that there is little likelihood of the public detecting any difference. The authorities are keeping the matter very quiet, and are doing all they can to reach the source of the mischief. The German, after paying all expenses, makes a sure 20 per cent, a very fair return for his investment in these days.

The Surplus, if There Should be Any, to be Impartially Divided to Stockholders. The Federal Steel Company, which has been organized in Cleveland, will have a capital of $12,000,000 and will be one of the biggest schemes of the kind ever projected. Pittsburg will have the purchasing office and Chicago the general headquarters. George T. Oliver, of Oliver, Bros. & Phillips, will be one of the directors.

CLEVELAND, November 16.—It is somewhat difficult to obtain the inside details and plans for the organization of the Fed-and plans for the organization of the Federal Steel Company from the Cleveland gen-tlemen who are taking an active part in the combination. They are very free to speak of the low prices and large expenses of the past and the benefits which will result from concentration, but they do not care to tell how they will concentrate. Later developments have made public something of the minor details of the consolidation. The nominal capital stock will be $12,000,000. Of this $6,000,000 will represent the value of the real estate, buildings, machinery and goodwill of the absorbed companies. From $4,000,000 to $6,000,000 will represent the cash paid in by investors. It may be that not more than $4,000,000 in cash will be needed as working capital and for buying outright the plants which owners will not exchange for the new company's stock.

THE PREFERRED STOCK TAKEN. A contract has been made with the banking firm of Drexel, Morgan & Co. for the cash capital. The bankers will receive for the money its equivalent in preferred stock. The $6,000,000 representing the value of the plants, will be issued as common stock of the consolidated company. Common stock will be given in exchange for buildings, machinery and real estate. Finished stock on hand ready for shipment on January 1 when the Federal Steel Company will begit operation, and raw material were not taken into consideration when the appraisal Commissioners fixed the valuation of plants and they will be regarded as cash and paid for in preferred stock. Preferred stock will clared, it will be paid upon the common stock up to 7 per cent.

DISPOSITION OF THE SURPLUS. If there is still a surplus remaining a dividend will be paid upon preferred and common stock alike. It is believed that enough stock in the new company will be issued before the Chicago meeting next week so that the corporation can be formally organized and the directors elected. SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HARTFORD, CONN., November 16 .- This ty has been wrought up politically during tie past 48 hours over the action of Patrick NcGovern, Chairman of the Republican Town Committee. The contest over the Eartford postmastership has quite bitter, the opposing candidates for the office being Major John C. Kinney, one of the editors of the Courant, Senator Hawley's paper, and Mr. A. Patrick McGovern opposes Major Kinney, it is alleged, for no other reason than that Senator Hawley favors him.

On Thursday last Patrick astounded the friends of Major Kinney by publishing a call for a vote at the American Hall. The first man to vote was Patrick McGovern. During the first hour and three-quarters eight men had voted. The total vote was 142. A. B. Gillett received 120 and John C. Kinney 22. There are about 4,500 Republican voters in Hartford.

You must know that Brazil has been nouncing that Harriet Hosmethet, the sculptor, has been engaged to execute a statue of Isabella, to be unveiled at the coming World's Fair. The Emperor is very Democratic in his impulses, and has not attempted personal rule at any time. He has repeatedly declared that whenever the people desired a republic and declared for it he would interpose no obstacle in the way. Thus, you see, it is possible for a revolution to occur which would be as bloodless as this vaguely reported revolution seems to be, It will be several days prohably before I shall know the truth in regard to the condition of affairs. THE BRAZILIAN MINISTER'S OPINION. A dispatch from Washington says: The reports of the revolutionary uprising in Brazil caused much excitement among the many South Americans in the city to-day and the opportune expressed in regard to the affair were various. Some would not look at the matter in a serious light at all, and were assured the reports were due to the machinations of coffee and ever, who were more thoroughly acquainted with the political feeling in the

H. H. Thurber Does Not Think America Commerce Will be Injured.

NEW YORK, November 16.-Mr. H. K. Thurber, of the Brazilian Steamship Company, when seen this afternoon said: The reports from Brazil are so meagre and un-reliable as yet that I must decline to express any opinion at present upon the final outcome of the reported revolution as affecting American trade. If the revolt III, are devoted mainly to special features, the becomes general and that country gets into universal state of confusion and a universal state of confusion and uproar and the scaports become blockaded, several branches of commerce as carried on by this country and the larger European countries will suffer. On the other hand, the South American revolutions have rarely ever reached such proportions, and after the first excitement generally simmer down to operations among opposing fac-tions. Our coffee supply will last four months without a shipment from Brazil, and by that time I hope peace will be re-

A NEW MONTE CRISTO.

John James Mago Becomes a Four-Time Millionaire as the Result of Receiving 100 Lashes-In Partnership With President Barrios. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. SAN FRANCISCO, November 16 .- John James Mago, a quiet, middle-aged, welldress man is staying here a few days waiting for the Mexican steamer to sail. He looks prosaic, but his career is as remantic as that of Monte Cristo.

Mago is now a four times millionaire who lives for nine months of the year at who lives for nine months of the year at Paris. Fifteen years ago he was a poor English collector of insects at Guatemala, and also acted as British Vice Consul at San Jose. One day Commandant Gourales ordered Mago to appear before him. Mago sent word he would come in a short time. This incensed the commandant, who was ugly with drink, and he sent a file of soldiers after Mago, and when the bug collector appeared, ordered 75 hashes laid on his bare back. This was done thoroughly, and when finished Gourales shouted: "Give him 25 more for luck." When Mago recovered, which was only after careful nursing, as his which was only after careful nursing, as his back was badly cut up, he made formal complaint to the British Government. The result was Gustemala was ordered to punish result was Guatemala was ordered to punish Gonzales and to pay Mago $500 for every lash he received. In default of this, English cruisers would shell San Jose and other coast cities.

Guatemala readily punished Gonzales, but tried hard to evade paying $50,000 to Mago. The British, however, were inexorable, and the poor bug collector was made a rich man in one day. As he had more coin than any one in the country then, President Barrios entered into partnership with him. Mago became one of the largest coffee planters and also secured the exclusive franchise for building docks along the ports. No one can land on or leave one of these docks without paying $2 toll to Mago, while he also levies a tax on all freight. He also owns valuable mines and tracts of timber. His fortune is estimated at $5,000,000, all due to 100 lashes on his back.

EUREKA, CAL., November 16.—This evening the schooner Fidelity, while inward bound in tow of the tug Ranger, was upset on the bar and was totally wrecked, with the loss of eight of the crew. The tug Ranger shipped a heavy sea, and the mate, John Rogers, was awept overboard and

The bar was not unusually rough, but the The har was not unusually rough, but the sea outside was heavy and struck with great violence. The tug crossed the bar without taking any water, but just as the schooner had reached the inner edge of the bar a heavy sea caught her under the port quarter, broaching her far to windward, and sending her over with all on board. The tug held on to the capsized vessel for more than half an hour, but finding both were drifting into the breakers, was obliged to cut the hawser. Not one of the men on the ill-fated craft was seen after she capsized. The crew consisted of Captain Christopherson and seven men, and the vessel was just returning from a voyage to Santa Barabara.

JEFF DAVIS VERY SICK.

t One Time During the Night His Life Wa Despoired Of

NEW ORLEANS, November 16,-Mr. Jef-Confederacy, arrived here to-day, a very sick man, and is now at the house of his lifelong triend, Mr. J. U. Payne. It is seknowledged by Mr. Davis' friends that he made a very narrow escape on his trip down here, and at one time it was feared that he would die during the night. Through good care he pulled through, and he reached here to-day in much better condition, but not yet out of danger.

His doctor and his wife both think that he will recover from his present attack, as he has from so many others, but he is a very old man—over 80—and it is admitted that his condition is very critical,

FIVE CENTS

OF RECKONING

Coming Discontented and Stay-a ome Democrats Who HELPED SWELL BOYER'S MAJORITY The State Committee to Read Recalcitrants Out of the Party.

QUAY NOT IN THE LEAST SURPRISED.

Delumater's Sake.

A day of reckoning is threatened for those Democratic discontents and stay-at-ho who allowed such a big majority for Boyer to be rolled up in Philadelphia. Senator Quay is reported as not being at all ausprised at the outcome in the Quaker city. His fight for Delamater's candidacy for Governor demanded that Penasylvania should not swerve, even in an off year.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR ! PHILADELPHIA. November 16 -- Penne svivania gave public notice on last election day that she is still stalwart in her Repubicanism. While other States weaks and some toppled over entirely, this State gave its largest off-year Repub majority, and it begins to look as if her leaders have caught the Presidental ear, as notice is said to have been given that the Democratic Federal office holders in the State and city must go, and speedily. It is true that the Democratic leaders claim that outside of Philadelphia they are satisfied with the result, and that they can pull the party into fighting condition, but the information has gone to the nation that Quay's State was the only one to hold her own, and as a consequence, he will receive the credit. QUAY'S EXPECTATIONS.

Those who know something of Secator Quay's methods, claim that when he is making a fight it is not alone for victory at the time, but with a view to its results on expected future contests. Quay wants every office that can be obtained for Republicant every office that can be obtained for Republicans. He has given public notice that Democrate have no rights under a Republican administration. He want to win the Gabernatorial nomination for his friend, Delamater, and after obtaining that, he wants to have him elected, as he evidently realizes that his candidate will be hard lought.

In order to pave the way for Delamater's success, the Junior Senator Instructed his licutenants throughout the State to make every effort to roll up an immense Republican majority. When it is known that the majority of 60,000, which Boyer received, was the minimum expected, some idea can be formed of what would have been done had not the wave of indignation on account of the President's slowness in the matter of removals been sweeping over the land.

NOT MUCH OF A SURPRISE.

There are some who think that the 41,000 majority in this city was a surprise to the Republican leaders, but such is not the fact. Senator Quay had been informed, days previous to election, that Democratic dimensions and disorganization, coupled with the fact that the Republican machinery was in good working order, with sufficient tax receipts for its veters, would make it possible for Speaker Boyer to receive nearly 60,000 remisering in this city.
